rooms on Main street.

Charles A. Gates of Willimantic and Sessions L. Adams of Plainfield were unanimously elected delegates-at-large to the republican state convention to be held in Hartford, Sept. 8 and 9, at the convention of the Twenty-ninth district, held Saturday noon, Aug. 28th at the town hall in this city. The name of Mr.
Gates was presented to the convention by A. J. Kehler and Mr. Adams was placed in nomination by Henry King of Plainfield.

The convention was called to order at 12:30 o'clock by Charles A. Gates, state central committeeman from the Twenty-ninth district. Fayette L. Wright of Pomfret was chosen chairman and E. C.
Babson of Brookville, clerk.

Delegates answering to the roll call were:
Brookville, Charles H. Blake, E. C.
Babson; Canterbury, Edward Baker, Thad Wilson, Howard A. Rix, E. Fitch Johnson; Chaplin, Charles B. Russ, Elizabeth N. Russell; Hampton, John H.
Fitts, Albert L. Mills; Plainfield, Henry King, Fred W. Tillingshast; Pomfret, Fayette L. Wright, E. C. Babson, John Ash, Willis Covell; Scotland, R. S.
Tomlinson, Clarence H. Perry; Sterling, A. J. Kehler, George C. Spooner; Windham, William A. King, Charles W. Hill, George S. Elliott.

But three of the twenty-six delegates were absent, these men being Alok Moffet and Samuel Butterworth of Plainfield, and Frank P. Jackson of Windham.

Committeemen Gates suggested that by making committee selections at the convention it would expedite business at the state convocation. Charles B. Russ then placed in nomination for district president, Ellsworth M. Russell of Chaplin, and Mr. Russell was nominated.
For committeemen on organization, John H. Fitts presented the name of A. J.
Kehler of Sterling. Mr. Kehler being nominated. On nomination of John Ash of Pomfret, Fayette L. Wright also of Pomfret was chosen for the committee on credentials. On the committee on rules, R. C. Babson of Brookville was chosen on motion of Charles H. Blake of Brookville. On committee on resolutions Edward Baker of Canterbury, however, was nominated on motion of George C. Spooner of Sterling. Alternates are to be selected by the delegates-at-large.

Following the adjournment at the invitation of Committeemen Gates the delegates adjourned to the Hotel Hooker for dinner. About ninety were present, among them being Congressman Richard Freeman and leading republicans of the town of Windham and district. Informal speeches followed.

The non-support case of Max Busky of Lebanon came up at the session of police court Saturday morning and was continued once more to the morning of September 13th. Attorney Shields of Norwich for the defendant was late owing to trouble with his car, and court did not start until 10:30. He then stated that his witnesses had refused to testify on that day as they were Orthodox Jew-ews and it was their day of worship.
Witnesses for the state of the same religious belief were present, however, and ready to testify. The attorney for the plaintiff thought this a rare excuse and not sufficient to postpone the hearing.
Ten minutes discussion followed, and the case was continued until Sept. 13.

Attorney Shields agreeing to the payment to Mrs. Busky of fifteen dollars a week for her support, the amount set by the court. First payment was made at the court. It is the hope of the court that the couple can get together in the meantime, the trouble being that Mrs.
Busky was unable to get along with her husband's parents, who lived with them on the farm. She would live with him.
He had offered to live across the way from the farmhouse in a much smaller house but Mrs. Busky did not like the place. The parents are to be asked to take the smaller house and a settlement be made. Judge Dean continues to hold the $300 bond.

Although pamphlets telling of the value of milk as compared with eggs, meats, fruits and other staples, have been left at various Willimantic homes during the past few days by local milk dealers, they claim that milk is not getting up in price. The price now prevailing is fourteen cents per quart from the can, and fifteen cents per quart if sealed.

city last week-end from the Maples, Lake Menominee, Wis. Members of the church had previously held a meeting to act upon the resignation of their pastor, presented at a weekly service early in the summer. Rev. Mr. Carpenter's return to the church was a surprise, as he was firmly fixed upon a unanimous vote was polled, refusing to accept the resignation presented them.

The board of selectmen of Stonington met in business session Saturday as directed by the Connecticut statutes to make up a budget of the expenses of the town for 1921. They then they will have printed in the annual report of the selectmen soon to be issued in book form. It has been necessary to go over the expense account of all departments of the town government in order to reach the result.

The selectmen will meet again on Monday to pass on current bills and to wind up the business of the past year.

The bell on the Second Congregational church was rung at 12 m. Saturday in honor of the ratification of the nineteenth amendment to the United States constitution, which gives women the right to vote.

There was a chimney fire in the Gaynor house on Gold street Thursday evening, due to the mass of soot in the flue on the second floor. The fire was put out by two men. No alarm was sounded.

CONNECTICUT WILL SHARE IN NURSE SCHOLARSHIPS Approximately $10,000 is set aside by the American Red Cross, of which Connecticut is to have its proportionate share, for nurse scholarships to be awarded to the successful applicants who wish to take the eight months' training for which the scholarship provides. This was the announcement made by Miss Margaret K. Stack, director of child hygiene and public health nursing of the state department of health.

The maximum scholarship is $600, but as some nurses do not need or wish the full amount partial scholarships are also awarded. The scholarships are open to all registered nurses, preference being given to those who have some education and are in good physical health.

Those who apply agree to take the eight months of training as provided in the scholarship and then agree to take a position as public health nurse for at least one year. There is a great scarcity of public health nurses in this state and it is hoped that this scholarship will induce many applicants to come forward.
Connecticut's share of the scholarship fund will be determined when it is known how many successful applicants have applied. The training will be begun in October in New Haven.

WOMEN'S FARM IS TO HAVE SCHOOL BUILDING
The architect has completed plans for the school building to be erected by the state of Connecticut at the state farm for women at Bride's Lake, East Lyme. The structure will be 40x75 feet, frame construction, two stories high, and will be situated on the farm grounds, with a gymnasium and other facilities for the work of the farm. The building will be steam heated.

With the return of Alice it is estimated that France's annual production capacity for sole leather is increased by 750,000 to 900,000 hides. No tanneries are located in Lorraine.

WESTERLY

Many people took advantage of the opportunity to visit the King Tom farm in Charlestown, R. I., on the Post road, and to cheerfully pay the price, only $1. The farm is the colonial homestead of Mrs.
Elfred Holt Wilkinson, formerly of Providence, and her sister, Mrs. Thomas P.
I. McDowell, of Providence. This historic old house was thrown open to visitors for the benefit of the South County hospital, at Waketon, of which Mrs. Wilkinson is a director. People came in automobiles from all the region round about, from Watch Hill, Wakefield, Peace Dale, Mattumuck, Tower Hill and Narragansett Pier, a large Providence contingent coming from summer homes in the South County and the Pier and all roomed at will about the extensive grounds surrounding the residence or moved from room to room in the old interior of the house with its wealth of rare old antiques and artistic furnishings.

The fine old rock garden with its many varieties of shrubbery and flowers in full bloom, was sought by all and here punch was served in front of a big bank of blossoming hydrangeas. Miss M. Helen Clapton of Providence presided at the punch bowl.

Tea and sandwiches were served on the lawn under the shadow of the house and the tall ivy covered chimneys.
